

Five Little Snowmen

This traditional fingerplay has many variations. This one is my favorite, and I have added the melody to make it a song. You can do this as just a fingerplay, as a dramatic play, as a felt board song, or a combination. I place snowmen and a sun on the felt board, and have the children stand up and then melt to the floor with each verse.

Five Little Snowmen

Five little men made out of snow
(hold up five fingers)

Each with a hat and a big red bow
(hold fists above head and pretend to put on a hat, hold hand to sides of neck as if adjusting a bowtie)

Out came the sun and he stayed all day
(make a large circle over head)

One little snowman melted away, and he said,
(hold up one finger and then have it slowly wiggle to the ground)

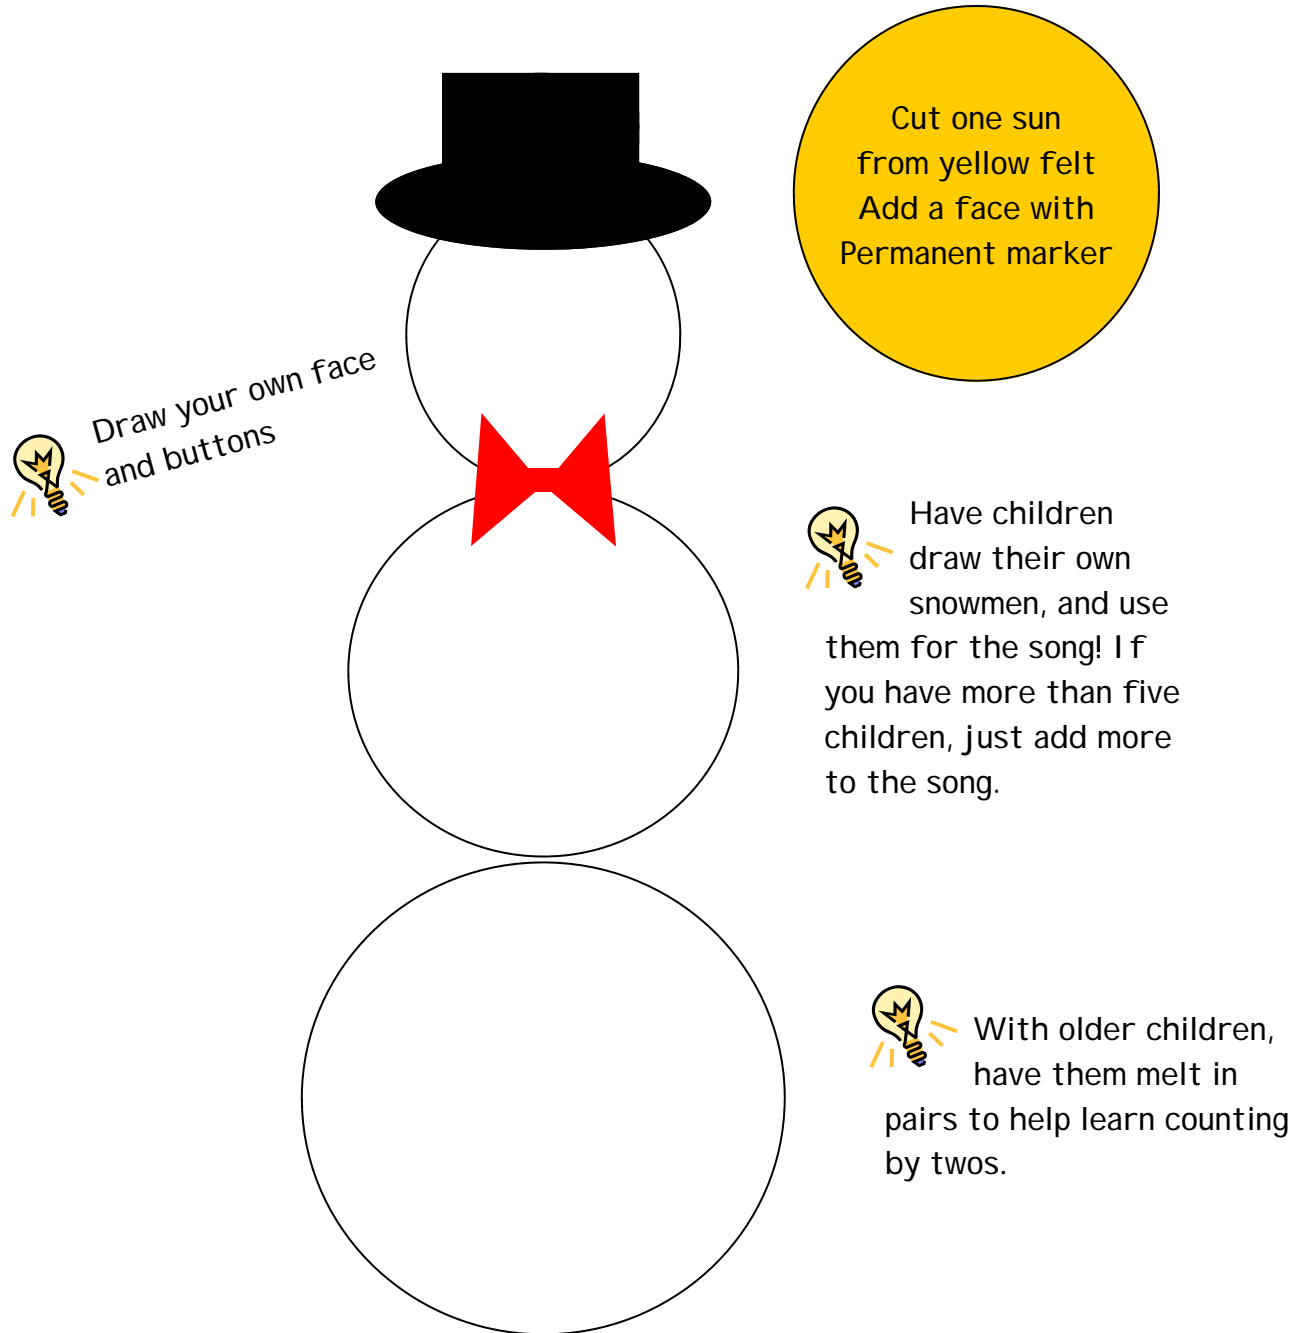

SPOKEN: "Oops- I'm a puddle!"
(open hands out to side, palms up)

Repeat with 4, 3, 2, 1

On the next page you'll find a pattern for a feltboard snowman and some other ideas to use with this song.

Pattern for Felt Snowman and Additional Ideas

Pattern for Felt Snowmen

For each snowman :

1. Cut basic shape from white felt
2. Cut bow from red felt
3. Draw buttons and face with permanent marker, or glue on sequins
4. Outline with silver and or red glitter glue if desired.
