

Song For the Children's Librarian

by Nancy Stewart
copyright 1997 Friends Street Music, BMI
Nancymusic.com

1. In the smallest part of the biggest place — — where the words and pictures in covers are placed, she's the one who holds the key — — — — to the children's corner of the library
y. 2. In a place where the tables and chairs are small and the second shelf can be quite tall, he's the one you'll come to see — — — — at the children's corner of the library — y

Chords: G, C, G, D, Am, C, D, G, C, D, G, C, D, G

BRIDGE 1 and 2:

37

1. When you vis - it she'll
2. He has mag - i - cal

41

read a stor - y to you, and she may e - ven pup - pets to share with you and he'll take you to 45

sing a song - - - or two an - y thing at pla - ces you ne - - - ver knew an - y - thing at 49

all to get her mes - sage through and make a read - all to get his mes - sage through and make a read -

53

- - er of you
- - er of you (to verse 4)

57

3. When you're still in your moth - er's and fa - ther's arms, -

61

- it will all be new but you won't be a - larmed -

65

- for a gen - tle face you'll see -

69

- at the chil - dren's cor - ner of the li - brar -

73 Verse 4

G

y 4.As your mind and your

77 C G D G

bones and your spir - it grow _____ there are so man - y

81 C A m D G

things you'll be want - ing to know _____ and you'll know just

85 G C G

who to see in the smal - lest

89 C G C G

part of the big - gest place where the words and

93 C G C G

pic - tures in cov - ers are placed she's the one who holds the key to the child - ren's

97 C G

101 C D G

cor - ner of the li - brar - y _____

105 C D G